CDFA Recognizes Tammi Alexander, DFCP

—Newest Graduate of the Prestigious Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) Program —

Columbus, OH — The Council of Development Finance Agencies (CDFA) is pleased to announce Tammi Alexander, Program Manager for the Washington State Department of Commerce, as the newest graduate of the prestigious Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) program. Ms. Alexander joins fellow program graduates who have invested in their professional development and are recognized as emerging leaders in the development finance industry.

“CDFA is happy to welcome Tammi into the ranks of DFCP graduates. She is a great ambassador of the DFCP program and reflects the best of the development finance industry,” states Toby Rittner, DFCP and President & CEO of CDFA. “Our hope is that through their work in the DFCP program, graduates are prepared to tackle critical development finance efforts in their communities.”

Ms. Alexander joined the Washington State Department of Commerce in 2018, where she oversees the Bond Users Clearinghouse. Additionally, Ms. Alexander manages special projects and writes fiscal notes during legislative sessions, specializing in tax bills. She also previously worked with the Public Works Board.

Ms. Alexander has managed both a law practice and a medical practice. She has experience teaching in higher education and working for the State of Texas. Ms. Alexander has a Master’s in Business Administration, a Master’s in Sociology, and a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Texas A&M University.

CDFA’s Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) Program is an intense training course learning experience and is the industry’s only comprehensive development finance professional certification program. The DFCP Program is designed to produce graduates with a comprehensive knowledge of development finance concepts, tools, and applicability as well as a deep understanding of the entire development finance spectrum. Graduates of the DFCP Program gain valuable knowledge and experience within the complex development finance industry and achieve a level of understanding unmatched by any other professional certification program.

The Council of Development Finance Agencies is a national association dedicated to the advancement of development finance concerns and interests. CDFA is comprised of the nation’s leading and most knowledgeable members of the development finance community representing public, private, and non-profit entities alike.
