CDFA Recognizes Tatiana Graver, DFCP

—Newest Graduate of the Prestigious Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) Program —

Columbus, OH — The Council of Development Finance Agencies (CDFA) is pleased to announce Tatiana Graver, Associate Executive Director for Wisconsin Health and Educational Facilities Authority, in Brookfield, WI, as the newest graduate of the prestigious Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) program. Ms. Graver joins numerous fellow graduates who are recognized as the most qualified leaders in development finance and are equipped to tackle the complexities of the industry.

“The CDFA team is happy to welcome Tatiana into the ranks of DFCP graduates. She is a great ambassador of the DFCP program and embodies the best of the development finance industry,” states Toby Rittner, DFCP and President & CEO of CDFA. “Our hope is that through their work in the DFCP program, graduates are ready to take on critical development finance efforts in the communities where they work.”

During Tatiana’s 11-year tenure at the Wisconsin Health and Educational Facilities Authority (WHEFA), she has participated in over 275 transactions totaling over $13 billion. She began her career with WHEFA as Manager of Finance in 2012 and became the Associate Executive Director in 2022.

Tatiana is a Founding Board Member and the current President of the Wisconsin Chapter of Women in Public Finance. She is also a Board Member of the National Association of Health and Educational Facilities Finance Authorities. Ms. Graver received her Bachelor of Science in Finance from Marquette University.

CDFA’s Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) Program is an intense training course learning experience and is the industry’s only comprehensive development finance professional certification program. The DFCP Program is designed to produce graduates with a comprehensive knowledge of development finance concepts, tools, and applicability as well as a deep understanding of the entire development finance spectrum. Graduates of the DFCP Program gain valuable knowledge and experience within the complex development finance industry and achieve a level of understanding unmatched by any other professional certification program.

The Council of Development Finance Agencies is a national association dedicated to the advancement of development finance concerns and interests. CDFA is comprised of the nation’s leading and most knowledgeable members of the development finance community representing public, private, and non-profit entities alike.
