Columbus, OH - The Council of Development Finance Agencies (CDFA) is pleased to congratulate Ross Borden, Director of Finance and Administration, as the newest graduate of the prestigious Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) program. As a new graduate, Mr. Borden joins numerous others who have invested in their professional development and are ready to tackle the complexities of the development finance industry.

“We are happy to welcome Ross into the ranks of DFCP graduates. He is a reflection of the efforts of CDFA to engage the best and brightest in the development finance industry,” states Toby Rittner, DCFP and President & CEO of CDFA.

Ross is Director of Finance and Administration at Capital City Development Corporation, Boise’s redevelopment agency. CCDC has helped make Boise one of the most livable cities in the country by igniting diverse economic growth, building vibrant urban centers, and promoting healthy community design. Mr. Borden also serves on the Board of Directors for Bogus Basin, the year-round, non-profit, mountain recreation area 16 miles and 5,000 feet above Boise. Bogus Basin provides 2,600 ski-able acres in the winter and miles of mountain bike and hiking trails in the summer.

Ross earned his undergraduate and master’s degree at the University of Idaho.

While Ross and his lovely bride Barb miss their three now-grown kids, empty-nesting has been a blast.
