

Coordinator, Programming

Status: Full-time, Exempt

Location: Columbus, Ohio

Salary Range: $42,500-50,000 annually

The Council of Development Finance Agencies (CDFA at www.cdfa.net) seeks a motivated, well-organized and energetic individual to fill the position of Coordinator, Programming. This position is critical to the continued success of CDFA's education, advocacy, research, resources and networking efforts. This is an exciting opportunity for an energetic and enthusiastic person to contribute to a great organization, working to create economic prosperity across the country. This position is located in Columbus, OH. The CDFA office is currently working in a remote fashion with team members expected to work from the office two days a week and remotely the remainder of the week.

This position will be responsible for helping to coordinate the day-to-day administration of various CDFA programming events. The Coordinator, Programming will be responsible for working with fellow CDFA team members to build and execute events, coordinate logistics, secure speakers, facilitate marketing and provide pre- and post-event management. Core responsibilities include:

- Developing event programming including agendas, outlines and curriculum,
- Collaborating on webinars and on-demand digital content,
- Assisting with conference and training related planning and logistics,
- Coordinating speaker details and information collection,
- Addressing attendee experiences and on-site and remote logistics,
- Assembling attendee communications,
- Coordinating technology aspects of training courses and conferences,
- Staffing live and online conferences and training, etc.,
- Other duties and special projects as assigned.

Some travel is required with approximately 2-3 trips per year as determined by CDFA.

Qualifications

Qualified candidates should have 1-3 years of previous program coordination experience and be familiar with professional development offerings. Direct educational programming or working at a trade association is also desired. A bachelor's degree is required. Candidates should have excellent organizational skills and be familiar with Microsoft Office, working on the internet and using email routinely. Candidates must possess communication, organization and associated skills commensurate with a position of this nature.

The ideal candidate must possess the ability to work independently, with strong written and interpersonal skills, and a high energy level. The ability to work under deadlines and successfully handle multiple priorities and excellent relationship-building skills is a must. Possessing great communication skills including listening and providing feedback is required. Finally, the successful candidate will be able to work in a team environment and contribute to all of the Council's initiatives.

While performing the functions of this job the employee is continuously required to talk or hear. Must be able to sit for extended periods of time. Frequently look at a computer screen for extended periods of time. Required to stand, walk, and reach with hands and arms.

Benefits

CDFA offers a very generous benefits package, including 10 paid holidays, 12 days of paid vacation and 10 days of personal leave. Vacation time increases with tenure. CDFA also offers a comprehensive health insurance package with employer contribution and an industry-leading 401(k) investment program with a 4% match. Opportunities for travel, to create flexible working schedules, and to build a career with expanded responsibilities and advancement are offered in exchange for hard work and dedication.

Submission Criteria

Interested candidates should email a cover letter, resume, salary request and three professional/academic references. Candidates who fail to submit the required materials will not be considered for the position. Submissions should be sent to:

About CDFA

The Council of Development Finance Agencies is a national association dedicated to the advancement of development finance concerns and interests. CDFA is comprised of the nation's leading and most knowledgeable members of the development finance community representing hundreds of public, private and non-profit development entities. Members are state, county and municipal development finance agencies and authorities that provide or otherwise support economic development financing programs as well as a variety of non-governmental and private organizations including bankers, underwriters, attorneys, financial advisors and other organizations interested in development finance.

The Council was formed in 1982 with the mission to strengthen the efforts of state and local development finance agencies fostering job creation and economic growth through the use of tax-exempt and other public-private partnership finance programs. Today, CDFA has one of the strongest voices in the development finance industry and regularly communicates with Capitol Hill, state and local government leaders and the Federal Administration. The Council provides a number of avenues for assisting the development finance industry including education, advocacy, research, resources and networking. CDFA is ultimately the conduit linking development finance professionals together.
