About Bob Rosenberg

Bob Rosenberg was a legendary, innovative and revered member of the public finance industry in greater New York City. He passed away of a sudden heart attack in 1996. Bob was an attorney with Hawkins, Delafield & Wood and mentor, friend and trusted colleague throughout the development finance industry. He served for many years as CDFA's general counsel, never receiving payment for his work and always pushing to build members, sponsors and supporters. The dedication of the CDFA Rosenberg Leadership Center is a lasting legacy in his honor.
