

March 26, 2026

PRESS RELEASE

Council of Development Finance Agencies
425 Metro Place N., Suite 460
Dublin, OH 43017
614-705-1300
www.cdfa.net

CONTACT:

Toby Rittner
President & CEO
trittner@cdfa.net

Megan McNally Joins CDFA as Director of Government Affairs and Advocacy

— Ms. McNally to Lead CDFA Advocacy Work in Washington, D.C. —

Dublin, OH — The Council of Development Finance Agencies (CDFA) is pleased to announce that Megan McNally has joined our team as Director of Government Affairs and Advocacy. Ms. McNally will be vital in advancing CDFA's national development finance policy agenda.

"CDFA is thrilled to add Megan McNally as our new Director of Government Affairs and Advocacy," said CDFA President & CEO Toby Rittner. "Her experience in public policy, advocacy, legislative affairs, and government relations will elevate CDFA's work to protect, preserve, and strengthen development finance tools on Capitol Hill and within the Administration. We're excited to have her join the CDFA team and to help drive our important advocacy work for years to come."

As Director of Government Affairs and Advocacy, Ms. McNally is responsible for managing CDFA's vast advocacy, legislative, policy, public affairs, and federal relations activities. This includes the production of the annual policy agenda, the Federal Policy Conference, and leading Capitol Hill engagement. Ms. McNally is also responsible for managing the CDFA Legislative Committee and works to provide access to CDFA Federal Services to communities throughout the country.

"As communities navigate a changing economic and policy environment, I'm honored to step into this role with CDFA," says Ms. McNally. "Through my experience across local, state, and federal government, I've seen firsthand the power of collaboration and thoughtful, innovative policy to drive meaningful community growth. I look forward to contributing to CDFA's advocacy efforts, continuing to grow in this field, and helping to advance development finance solutions nationwide."

Ms. McNally received a dual degree in Public Affairs and Spanish with a minor in City and Regional Planning from The Ohio State University. In her free time, she enjoys cooking, crafting, and anything outdoors.

You can meet Ms. McNally in person in Washington, D.C., as she kicks off her role at the 2026 CDFA Federal Policy Conference on April 7-8, 2026.

The Council of Development Finance Agencies is a national association dedicated to the advancement of development finance concerns and interests. CDFA is comprised of the nation's leading and most knowledgeable members of the development finance community representing public, private, and non-profit entities alike. For more information about CDFA, visit www.cdfa.net.

CDFA: Advancing Development Finance Knowledge, Networks & Innovation

###